Description of Services:

The Halifax Regional School Board administers a provincial program funded by the Department of Immigration that teaches English as an Additional Language (EAL). Free courses for new immigrants are offered in home and community-based (3 hours/week) classes to Newcomers in the area. The classes are ongoing and do not have a term limit.

Provider's Remarks:

A qualified instructor will come to the newcomer's home 1-2 times weekly for 3-hours to teach literacy and integration skills for using English in the community, and work for adjusting to life in Nova Scotia
